Pray for Peace

Ethiopia has been in a war up North for over a year now. Over the last two weeks, an organization has made advancement in trying to take over the current government. Though things seem peaceful in the capital, if peace does not happen soon, they will make their way in to the capital. There have been many casualties and famine in the north due to the war and drought. Would you pray with us each morning for the people of Ethiopia? These next few weeks and months are critical to their future.

The Church is growing

Even with all the unrest, we are excited to share the ministry is growing. Just a few weeks ago 5 young men who attend our soccer outreach expressed a desire to learn more about the Bible and what it means to be a Christian. We are excited that they are meeting each week with our church administrator, Teddy, to grow in their walk with Christ.

What in the World is going on?

As many of you know, we, along with other missionaries, had to evacuate the country of Ethiopia due to unrest. We are so thankful for all the prayers during our leaving and arriving in the United States. None of us planned to be back in the States so soon, but here we are. The one question we ask and are being asked from so many is, "When do you get to return?" That's a question we don't have an answer to at this time. Our prayer was to return by December 1 and if that didn't happen, then leave December 15. Neither of those dates seem to be a reality for us. Another challenge we have for our family is our visas expire the first of the year. Since we are not in country at this time, we will have to send our documents for renewal without us being in country. This will be a first for our family but it has been done before for our teammates. We don't know how long it will take for us to get them back in hand. It could take a few months. With that being more of a reality, if you would like for us to come and fill in your pulpit, share at your missions conference or missions emphasis, we would be honored.
